Nepal Dialogue Forum Conference 2024 Implications of climate change on human rights in Nepal

26 and 27 Nov 2024, 9am-1pm CET each day
(online via zoom)

Nepal Dialogue Forum cordially invites you to our conference on “Implications of climate change on human rights in Nepal”, to be held online on 26 and 27 November 2024 (9am-1pm CET).

We are looking forward to two days of in-depth discussions, sharing of experiences and mutual learning, of renewing our connections and forging new networks. We foresee an open exchange based on the experiences and visions of participants from Nepal and Europe. The conference will feature plenary sessions as well as a range of workshops on a variety of aspects of the implications of climate change on human rights in Nepal. To support a frank conversation, the event will be held under Chatham House Rule.

An invitation and programme will be sent out in September 2024.

We would be deeply honoured by your presence, and very much look forward to your attendance!

In the name of Nepal Dialogue Forum
Birgit Felleisen, coordinator
